Solidariti Rentas Sempadan untuk Keamanan, Budaya, dan Alternatif Rakyat di Asia Tenggara di Siem Reap, Kemboja
Cross-Border Solidarity for Peace, Culture, and People's Alternatives in Southeast Asia in Siem Reap, Cambodia

Hirzawati Atikah dan Raine Melissa telah menghadiri Persidangan Serantau Pergerakan Alternatif dan Solidariti di Asia Tenggara (MASSA) yang ke-6, yang berlangsung di Siem Reap, Kemboja, dari 11 hingga 13 November 2025. Acara ini dianjurkan oleh MASSA dengan kerjasama sebuah organisasi tempatan, Gender and Development Cambodia (GADC). Persidangan tersebut menghimpunkan lebih 100 peserta dari seluruh Asia Tenggara dan India, termasuk pelbagai wakil dari NGO dan kumpulan aktivis. Di bawah tema "Solidariti Rentas Sempadan untuk Keamanan, Budaya, dan Alternatif Rakyat di Asia Tenggara," (Cross-Border Solidarity for Peace, Culture, and People's Alternatives in Southeast Asia) perbincangan tertumpu kepada solidariti rentas sempadan mengenai pelbagai topik, seperti regionalisme alternatif, budaya tentangan, dan solidariti, di samping maklumat terkini dan rancangan masa depan yang berkaitan dengan MASSA.

Hirzawati Atikah and Raine Melissa attended the 6th Regional Conference of the Movement for Alternatives and Solidarity in the Southeast Asia (MASSA), which took place in Siem Reap, Cambodia, from 11 - 13 November 2025. This event was organised by MASSA in collaboration with Gender and Development Cambodia (GADC). The conference gathered over 100 participants from across Southeast Asia and India, including diverse representatives from NGOs and activist groups. With Asian Solidarity Economy Council (ASEC) Members from Indonesia & Philippines

Melissa telah melawat Komuniti Phnom Krom dan Khlang Toek Tom Noub. Empangan yang dipanggil Empangan 78, yang digali menggunakan tangan semasa era Khmer Rouge pada tahun 1978, masih menyokong 260 petani dan lebih 5000 hektar sawah padi. Empangan ini terletak di tengah-tengah kehidupan komuniti, menyokong biodiversiti dan menjadi sauh kepada generasi yang telah mengusahakan tanah tersebut selama berabad-abad. Sawah padi ditentukan melalui memori kolektif, di mana keluarga menguruskan tanah dan air sebahagian besarnya tanpa sokongan kerajaan, manakala syarikat dan pihak swasta telah mewujudkan pertikaian berterusan ke atas sumber.

Melissa visited the Phnom Krom and Khlang Toek Tom Noub Community. The dam called the 78 Dam, which was hand-dug during the Khmer Rouge era in 1978 is still sustaining 260 farmers and 5000 over Ha of rice fields. The dam lies at the centre of community life, supporting biodiversity and anchoring generations who have farmed the land for centuries. Paddy fields are delineated through collective memory, with families managing land and water largely without government support, while corporations and private actors have created ongoing disputes over resources.

Hirzawati Atikah melawat Komuniti Trapang Svay di Angkor Thum. Komuniti ini terlibat dalam konflik tanah dengan seorang biarawati Buddha sejak tahun 2005 dan sedang memperjuangkan hak tanah mereka melalui kes-kes mahkamah. Walaupun menghadapi kesukaran, mereka terus mengamalkan pertanian tradisional, termasuk penyimpanan benih asli. Meskipun hasil pertanian mereka tidak mencukupi untuk menampung keperluan seluruh komuniti, kecekalan dan keberanian mereka mendorong mereka untuk terus berusaha. Komitmen ini penting kerana hasil pertanian tersebut membantu menampung perbelanjaan mereka bagi perbicaraan mahkamah yang berterusan.

Hirzawati Atikah visited the Trapang Svay Community at Angkor Thum. This community has been involved in a land conflict with a Buddhist religious nun since 2005 and has been pursuing their land rights through court cases. Despite their struggle, they continue to practice traditional farming, including native seed saving. Although the yield from their farming is insufficient to cover the needs of the whole community, their resilience and courage commit them to continue. This commitment is crucial as the farming helps support their expenses for the continuous court battles.

Persidangan Kerja Sosial Asia Pasifik ke-28 di Colombo, Sri Lanka 28th Asia Pacific Conference on Social Work in Colombo, Sri Lanka

Paniirselvam dan Lydia Ann telah mengambil bahagian dalam Persidangan Kerja Sosial Asia Pasifik ke-28 (28th Asia Pacific Conference on Social Work) di Colombo, Sri Lanka, sebuah persidangan yang didedikasikan untuk menangani cabaran yang ditimbulkan oleh perubahan iklim dan kemerosotan alam sekitar di seluruh rantau ini. Lydia membentangkan kertas kerjanya, "Socioeconomic Development in Malaysia and What It Means for Social Policy," di mana beliau menggariskan metodologi penyelidikan APPGM-SDG dan membincangkan isu-isu tertentu yang dihadapi oleh pulau-pulau kecil di Malaysia, seperti hakisan pantai dan masalah ketersambungan. Selepas pembentangannya, Lydia menjawab soalan mengenai cabaran etika penyelidikan akar umbi, berdasarkan pengalamannya di Pulau Mantanani, Sabah. Paniirselvam pula membentangkan kertas kerjanya, "Green Social Work: A Malaysian case study on the multi-level & multi-stakeholders' SDG & SSE participatory approach in designing the micro ecological solutions at the macro level in ensuring environmental justice & sustainability," yang memperincikan bagaimana APPGM-SDG menginstitusikan pendekatan penyertaan pelbagai pihak berkepentingan untuk menyampaikan penyelesaian hijau dengan mengintegrasikan tiga teori dan kerangka utama yang berkaitan dengan SDG, SSE dan Kerja Sosial bagi memastikan keadilan dan kelestarian alam sekitar.

Paniirselvam and Lydia Bill participated in the 28th Asia Pacific Conference on Social Work in Colombo, Sri Lanka, a conference dedicated to addressing challenges posed by climate change and environmental degradation across the region. Lydia presented her paper, "Socioeconomic Development in Malaysia and What It Means for Social Policy," where she outlined the APPGM-SDG's research methodology and discussed specific issues faced by Malaysia's small islands, such as coastal erosion and connectivity. Following her presentation, she addressed a question regarding the ethical challenges of grassroots research, drawing on her experience in Pulau Mantanani, Sabah. Paniirselvam presented his paper, "Green Social Work: A Malaysian case study on the multi-level & multi-stakeholders' SDG & SSE participatory approach in designing the micro ecological solutions at the macro level in ensuring environmental justice & sustainability" which detailed how APPGM-SDG institutionalises a participatory, multi-stakeholder approach to deliver green solutions by integrating three major theories and frameworks related to SDG, SSE, and Social Work to ensure environmental justice and sustainability.

Lawatan Pembelajaran ke Ibu Pejabat Sarvodaya Sri Lanka
Learning visit to Sarvodaya Headquarters Sri Lanka

Paniirselvam dan Lydia telah menerima sambutan mesra daripada komuniti di Puttur, Jaffna, semasa lawatan yang penuh bermakna ke perkampungan pantai berhampiran Point Pedro, hujung utara Sri Lanka. Komuniti nelayan ini, yang pernah menghadapi kemusnahan semasa tsunami 2004, telah menunjukkan daya tahan yang luar biasa dengan berjaya membina semula kehidupan dan mata pencarian mereka. Perkampungan tersebut, yang juga mempunyai pulau-pulau kecil serupa dengan konteks Malaysia, amat bergantung pada kemahiran turun-temurun—seperti membaca ombak dan memahami pola cuaca—untuk strategi kesiapsiagaan dan mitigasi mereka semasa musim monsun dan taufan.

Paniirselvam and Lydia received a warm welcome from the community in Puttur, Jaffna, during an insightful visit to the coastal village near Point Pedro, the northernmost tip of Sri Lanka. This fishing community, which faced devastation during the 2004 tsunami, has demonstrated remarkable resilience by successfully rebuilding their lives and livelihoods. The village, which also features small islands similar to the Malaysian context, relies heavily on generational intelligence—such as reading waves and understanding weather patterns—for their preparedness and mitigation strategies during monsoon and typhoon seasons.

Paniirselvam dan Lydia telah melawat sebuah program pemerksaan wanita yang mendapat permintaan tinggi, yang berfokuskan kepada jahitan. Inisiatif ini, yang diketuai oleh Pastor Sutarsan, telah melatih kira-kira 18-20 wanita dari latar belakang kurang berkemampuan merentasi tiga kumpulan, menyediakan mereka dengan kemahiran menjana pendapatan alternatif semasa musim bukan pertanian bagi keluarga petani. Pelatih-pelatih telah berjaya mendapat pekerjaan di kedai-kedai jahitan tempatan, memperoleh pendapatan antara Rs1,500 hingga Rs3,000 sebulan, dengan pendapatan melonjak kepada purata Rs30,000 semasa musim perayaan.

Paniirselvam and Lydia visited a highly sought-after women's empowerment programme focused on tailoring. This initiative, led by Pastor Sutarsan, has trained approximately 18-20 women from disadvantaged backgrounds across three batches, providing them with alternative income generation skills during the seasonal off-periods for farming families. The trainees have successfully found work in local tailoring shops, earning between Rs1,500 to Rs3,000 monthly, with incomes surging to an average of Rs30,000 during festive seasons.

Sebagai sebahagian daripada Lawatan Kajian SPIRAL bersama Wild Asia, James Raj, Darshini, dan Nur Shaidatul telah melawat dua ladang kelapa sawit di Kampar, Perak, untuk mempelajari amalan pertanian mampan. En. Mat Jais, seorang petani berpengalaman, berkongsi pengalamannya dalam Program BIO sejak 2021, di mana beliau menggunakan bio-baja dan bio-enzim untuk meningkatkan kesihatan tanah tanpa bahan kimia. Mereka juga melawat ladang En. Yusof yang mengamalkan sistem tanaman-ternakan bersepadu dengan menanam jagung dan menternak 30 ekor lembu, di mana sisa jagung dijadikan makanan lembu, dan najis lembu digunakan sebagai baja organik. Pendekatan ini membolehkan pengurangan penggunaan baja kimia dalam penanaman kelapa sawit, sekali gus meningkatkan kesuburan tanah dan kelestarian ladang secara keseluruhan.

As part of the SPIRAL Study Tour with Wild Asia, James Raj, Darshini, and Nur Shaidatul visited two palm oil farms in Kampar, Perak, to learn about sustainable farming practices. Mr. Mat Jais, an experienced farmer, shared his experience in the BIO Program since 2021, where he uses bio-fertiliser and bio-enzyme to improve soil health without chemical substances. They also visited Mr. Yusof's farm, which practices an integrated livestock-crop system by cultivating corn and rearing 30 beef cattle, where corn waste is used as feed for the cows, and cow manure is used as organic fertiliser. This approach allows for the reduction of chemical fertiliser usage in oil palm cultivation, thereby improving soil fertility and the overall sustainability of the farm.
